DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. The restriction requirement as set forth in the Office action mailed on 02/21/2007 has been reconsidered and is hereby withdrawn. Claims 1-13 are being examined.

In view of the above noted withdrawal of the restriction requirement, applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Once a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. See In re Ziegler, 443 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hervish et al. (US 5,911,875).

Hervish (figures 1-3) teaches a residual oil supercritical extraction process (ROSE process) integrated with a combined cycle power generation comprising: a ROSE unit 200, and a power and steam generation system 1, said power and steam generation system supplying the high level heat requirements of the ROSE unit (through 58, 62) for processing a residual oil 202, said ROSE unit processing the residual oil with a solvent 230 to recover an asphaltene stream 44 and a deasphalted oil 43. See particularly cl. 2 lines 20 to cl. 3 line 25.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
